Weekly Update

01/19/2012

Church Life Shared

Men Who Cook Tickets are now available in the church. This year's Men Who Cook will be on Tuesday, February 21 starting at 6:30 p.m. Ticket prices are $15.00 for adults, $7.50 for children age 6-12, children age 0-5 no charge and a maximum of $40.00 for a family. If you wish to purchase tickets or desire to pick up a packet of tickets to sell yourself please see Terry in the church office Tuesday to Thursday from 9 a.m. to noon .

The Session, has called the Annual Congregational Meeting for Sunday, January 29, 2012, following the morning worship service. This meeting will include a luncheon for all who attend the meeting, reports from the various groups of the church, election of officers, action related to the 2012 operating and mission budget, and any other business that may be brought up during the course of the meeting. This meeting is open to all interested persons. Those who are active members of the congregation are encouraged to attend. The Annual Meeting Packets will be available to pick up on Sunday, January 22. Two additional reports not in the packet—the 2012 Operating Budget and the Nominating Committee report will be available later in the week.

January 29 is the next TAP-IN Extra Sunday. On this Sunday all are encouraged to bring something extra for the TAP-IN Food pantry, like a cake or brownie mix and frosting, condiments or any of those extra things that make life just a little more normal for those seeking food assistance.

Available for the asking, A Microsoft Wireless Keyboard and Mouse set. If you are interested in having a wireless keyboard and mouse for your home computer please see Patrick Notley. This system works best with Vista or older operating systems.

Anyone interested in attending the Barrington Police Athletic League Comedy Night at the Johnson and Wales Inn on Saturday, March 3 can see Patrick for complimentary tickets. There are six tickets available and each ticket will admit two people.
